The Covina Valley Historical Society is a volunteer group that works to promote and encourage the study of Covina area history. For more information, call their message line at (626) 967-3332. Click here to go to their website.