

Sergeant Rob Bobkiewicz began his career with the Covina Police Department in 1990. Prior to entering his career in law enforcement, Sergeant Bobkiewicz served honorably in the United States Air Force. After graduating the police academy, Sergeant Bobkiewicz was assigned to the Patrol Division where he later worked as a Field Training Officer and a School Resource Officer.

Sergeant Bobkiewicz left the Patrol Division and transferred to the Detective Bureau where he was assigned to the Juvenile/Sex Crimes detail. Sergeant Bobkiewicz promoted to his current rank in 2010.

Sergeant Bobkiewicz is the recipient of the department's Meritorious Service Medal and Distinguished Service Medal and was honored by his peers as the department's Police Officer of the Year in 2007.

Sergeant Bobkiewicz served as the President of the Covina Police Officers Association from 2003 to 2009.
