

Covina has a voter-approved Utility Users Tax of 6% levied on all electricity, natural gas, telephone, and cable television service. Low Income Tax-Exempt Information Residents may qualify for exemption from the utility user's tax if they meet the income guidelines and provide the necessary documentation. For additional information and to review an application please use the

Utility User's Tax Exemption Packet