

Low-income housing in Covina and the surrounding cities are provided through contracts with the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), covenants under redevelopment law, or through low-income housing tax credit (LIHTC) projects. Senior housing is usually restricted to those who are 62 years of age or older, but some senior housing complexes accept those who are 55 years of age or older. Contact the housing complex to see how they define “senior.”

For a complete list of HUD housing, go to www.hud.gov

For a complete list of LIHTC housing, go to <http://lihtc.huduser.org/>

CLICK HERE for a list of low-income senior and family housing in Covina and surrounding cities. Please call each individual apartment complex to determine availability and cost. Most apartments keep a waiting list for the affordable units.

Senior Housing

Several senior housing projects which are restricted by age and income are located in Covina.

Senior Housing Apartments

227 N. Citrus Avenue, Covina CA 91723 1 bedroom and studios (909) 525-6900 (626) 339-9496

Qualifying residents must be 62 or older

Covina Gardens Senior Apartments

200 W. Rowland Street, Covina, CA 1 bedroom (626) 967-4796
residents must be 55 or older

Qualifying

Village Green Senior Apartments

152 E. Covina Blvd., Covina, CA 91722

1 bedroom and studios

(626) 915-3381

Qualifying residents must be 55 or older