

ORDINANCE NO. 04-1902

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF COVINA, CALIFORNIA, ESTABLISHING A RD-2000 (PCD) ZONE DESIGNATION (RESIDENTIAL-MULTIPLE-FAMILY WITH A REQUIRED LOT AREA OF 2,000 SQUARE FEET FOR EACH DWELLING UNIT AND WITH A PLANNED COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT OVERLAY ZONE DESIGNATION) FOR CERTAIN PROPERTY IN THE CITY OF COVINA, APPLICATION PCD 03-004, AND MAKING CERTAIN FINDINGS AND CONDITIONS

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF COVINA DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. Pursuant to public hearing and processing in the manner set forth by State law and local ordinance, and after recommendation thereon by the Planning Commission at a duly noticed public hearing on February 10, 2004, the property classification set forth in Section 2 is made for the reasons of public interest, convenience, and necessity.

SECTION 2. The following described real property in the City of Covina, County of Los Angeles, State of California, is hereby zoned "Residential – Multiple-Family with a Density/Minimum required lot area for each dwelling unit of 2,000 square feet and with a Planned Community Development overlay zone designation (RD-2000 (PCD))" as such zone is defined in Title 17 of the Covina Municipal Code:

A Residential Lot for Condominium purposes described as follows: Lots 10, 11 and a Portion of Lot 12 of Tract No. 5296, as recorded in Book 115, Page 81 of Miscellaneous Records in the Recorder's Office of the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

SECTION 3. After giving full consideration to all evidence, both oral and documentary, presented at a duly noticed City Council public hearing on March 16, 2004, and after being fully informed, said City Council does hereby find and decide:

1. That the site for the proposed use is adequate in size and shape to accommodate the use.

Fact: The rectangular-shaped, .44-acre site adequately accommodates all improvements associated with the proposed 6-unit residential condominium development. In addition, the size and features of the proposed residential facility are comparable to other City-approved multiple dwelling complexes of a similar project density, with there being no design-related problems identified at the other locations.

2. That the site for the proposed use relates to streets and highways adequate in width and pavement type to carry the quantity and kind of traffic generated by the proposed use.

Fact: Based upon staff's review of the proposal and projected traffic associated thereof, surrounding streets (including rearward alley) have sufficient capacity to handle future project-related traffic—and to accommodate this traffic in a safe manner.

3. That the proposed use is not detrimental to the surrounding properties or uses permitted in the general area.

Fact: The residential development would constitute a major physical improvement over existing conditions on the property and would conform to the character of the surrounding area, particularly along Puente Street and Barranca Avenue, in terms of use type, building architecture, landscaping, and development intensity. In addition, the new complex could foster additional residential revitalization on adjacent properties.

4. That the conditions stated in the decision are deemed necessary to protect the health, safety, and general welfare.

Fact: Project conditions of approval would be essential for providing the City with safeguards for ensuring that the project proposal is developed in accordance with approved plan details. And City staff believes that the project would respect the health and safety fabric of the area.

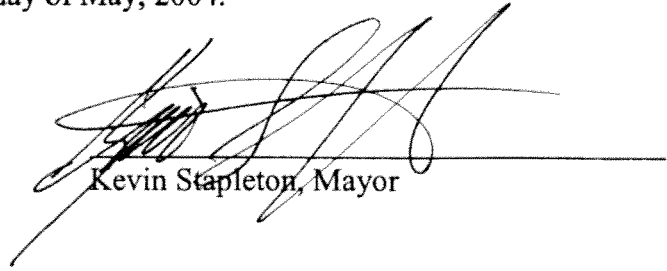

SECTION 4. In considering this application, the City Council has affirmed the environmental finding of the Planning Commission. This finding is that the project is categorically exempt from environmental review, pursuant to Section 15303(b) of the California Environmental quality Act (CEQA) Guidelines.

SECTION 5. The application for a RD-2000 (PCD) zone designation, which pertains to allowing modification of certain zoning standards to accommodate development of six condominium dwelling units, is hereby granted, subject to the following conditions of approval, which are deemed necessary to protect the public health, safety, and general welfare of the community:

(Conditions of Approval available in City Clerk's Office)

SECTION 6. The City Clerk shall certify to the passage and adoption of this ordinance and shall cause the same to be published according to law.

APPROVED AND PASSED this 4th day of May, 2004.

Kevin Stapleton, Mayor
